

I want the stringest possible "lock" in order for these Telemarkets to stop trying call my home at any time. It is my right to demad that the FCC stay out of my business and concentrate instead on what the telecommunications companies are doing to our phone services.